in 1996 as the outcome of the Chief Ministers' conference held on July 4-5, 1996 which adopted the following objectives for the BMS programme.

1. 100 percent coverage of provision of safe drinking water in rural and urban areas.
2. 100 percent coverage of primary health service facilities in rural and urban areas.
3. Universalisation of Primary education.
4. Provision of Public Housing Assistance to all shelterless poor families.
5. Supplementary Nutrition via Extension of Mid-day Meal Programme in primary schools to all rural blocks and urban slums and disadvantaged sections and supplementary nutrition programme implemented as part of ICDS.
6. Provision of connectivity to all unconnected villages and habitations.
7. Streamlining of the Public Distribution System with a focus on the poor.

In order to ensure that adequate investments are made in the above mentioned BMS sectors, Additional Central Assistance (ACA) is provided exclusively for BMS. The allocation of ACA for BMS to the North Eastern States and Sikkim amounted to Rs. 444.07 crore in 1996-97 and Rs. 453.73 crore in 1997-98. Inter-se allocations of ACA among different sectors of BMS are made by the State Governments.

(c) In the meeting of the Chief Ministers of North Eastern States and Sikkim with the Prime Minister held on 8th May, 1998, the issues relating to economic development of these States were discussed. It was emphasised in the meeting that the development of infrastructure including entire social infrastructure in respect of Health, Housing and Education would receive priority in the developmental programmes for these States. In this context, the North Eastern Council (NEC) would be restructured with Deputy Chairman, Planning Commission as its Chairman, and Sikkim would be included as a full-fledge member of the Council. Necessary action has been initiated in the Government for restructuring NEC.
